Who should attend: Employers, Unions, Human Resource Professionals, Educators, Health Care Providers, Social Workers, Law Enforcement, Domestic Violence Shelter and Service Staff, and Community Members.

Ramada Plaza Regina (1818 Victoria Avenue)

Keynote: Monday, May 28: Mariann Rich
Mariann, a long-time nurse and nursing instructor, lost her sister Shirley as a result of domestic abuse. For many years she led a seminar on the role of community health nurses and intimate partner violence, now she advocates for education on domestic violence in the hope that no one else will lose a sister, daughter or mother.

Keynote: Tuesday May 29:
Jackie Anderson & Christine Dumaine
Jackie has worked at the Ma Mawi Wi Chi Itata Centre in Winnipeg for 18 years and is a national expert in the areas of Sexual Exploitation/Human Trafficking. She currently sits on the Winnipeg Police Indigenous Council. She has presented and trained globally on the realities of sexual exploitation through value based Indigenous holistic perspectives.

Christine is a Youth Mentor with Ma Mawi Wi Chi Itata Centre’s Honoring the Spirits of our Little Sisters group home. Christine uses her experience of survival as a sexually exploited trafficked youth and her healing journey to mentor women and inspire the next generation.

Special Guests for Closing Plenary:
Sunny Marriner, Executive Director of the Ottawa Rape Crisis Centre. She is currently leading a national project on Advocate Case Review of police files of violence against women reports.
Chief Evan Bray, Regina Police Service. RPS has recently launched a new approach to responding to domestic conflict.

For more information & registration go to: pathssk.org/conference-2018/ or call 306-522-3515